

Why does a licensed installer need to sign my application form?

Contributed by Administrator
Wednesday, 27 May 2009

As part of the application process we require proof that you are replacing an existing electric storage hot water system and have installed a hot water system that is eligible for 20 renewable energy certificates or more. The installer can certify this and can also provide the tank serial number which is not always easy for the applicant to obtain.